ENDORSEMENTS

Screwfix had a fantastic day at Carymoor Environmental Centre refining our sustainability plans. It's an inspirational location combining the realities of human-generated waste with the optimism of flourishing local nature.

Early on in Screwfix's journey in becoming a more sustainable business, we visited Carymoor and it contributed to the acceleration of our work and commitments in this area. It was great to be back to revitalise and develop our strategy further.

We would highly recommend this local reserve to get away from the day to day of work and focus on nature, communities and the environment.

Olivia Green, Sustainability Manager, Screwfix

The day was incredibly fulfilling, as I was able to meet my team and socialise and relax with them, while also helping a worthwhile cause.

It was especially nice to be involved in an activity that benefited the environment, and I was very proud of myself and my team for our hard work to conserve wildlife and undertake sustainable actions.

Ali - Civil Service Volunteering day, June 2022

I had a wonderful day. Being someone with a desk job and with a lot of indoor hobbies, it was great to get outside and get my hands dirty. I do not have a garden myself so it was really fun getting to do something different and slightly out of my comfort zone.

It was massively beneficial to my mental health. Through being outside and getting involved in nature, but also through feeling productive and like we made a real difference to the great work they do at Carymoor.

About Us

Carymoor Environmental Trust is an environmental education and nature conservation charity, providing inspirational outdoor learning for schools and community groups.

The Trust was set up in 1996 by a small group of enthusiasts and carries out pioneering land restoration and habitat creation work on 100 acres of capped landfill just outside Castle Cary in Somerset. This has created a nature reserve with an extensive range of habitats that is used to provide high quality first hand experiences of the natural world.

Through our education programmes and demonstrations of renewable energy and sustainable buildings, the centre has developed a reputation that exemplifies environmental good practice.

Vision

Our vision is one where sustainability is central to the daily lives of everyone in Somerset.

Mission

Our mission is to provide unique environmental learning opportunities to help people in Somerset live sustainably and connect with nature.

Additional benefits

Your corporate involvement with Carymoor will help support the sustainability of the charity.

Corporate Volunteering

We can also offer corporate volunteering days. Please get in touch with us for further details.
